

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Advertising in the Schools P 2-12

The school board does not approve of commercialism within its schools. However, the school board recognizes the value and approves the use of materials developed by commercial organizations when, in the opinion of the superintendent, instructional value far outweighs the commercial or advertising aspect.

Adopted by School Board: June 19, 1973