

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Distribution of Outside Communications P 2-13A. In the Community

Students should not be used as a means of distributing notices or communications to parents not originating within the schools or of an official school nature with the exception of communication to parents from the parent organizations affiliated with the school or when, in the judgment of the superintendent, such communications are of a significant educational value.

B. In the Schools

The announcing of nonschool-related events is discouraged; however, announcements or notices having, in the judgment of the superintendent, significant educational value or widespread community importance may be announced in the schools.

C. Use of School Mail Services

The use of the school division mail distribution service shall be limited to school business. The use of this service may be extended to parent-teacher organizations or other school-related organizations with the permission of the superintendent.
