

STUDENTS

The director for student services, in coordination with the principals, shall be responsible to determine names and addresses of individuals who are believed to be eligible for school but who are not in attendance.

After reasonable in-school efforts through the principal to locate said children, the names will be turned over to the home school coordinators and attendance coordinators to determine their whereabouts.

Students and parents who are believed in violation of the Code (§ 22.1 - 254), after counseling, will be referred to the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.
