

SMS Sunday Message: January 10

Good evening, Spartan Family! This is Matthew A. Mason, proud principal of Sandusky Middle School, and here is the Sunday Message for the week of January 11 - 15. This message has been forwarded to our SMS family via email and can also be found on our website under the Sunday Messages tab.

- Students will return to in-person learning this Tuesday, January 12 (Cohort A) and Thursday, January 14 (Cohort B). If your child has been granted in-person learning for the third quarter, that will begin on Tuesday, January 19. As a reminder, attendance is still very important. Students and parents/guardians, remember to complete your Question of the Day so that you are marked present for the day.
- This is a reminder that Quarter 2 ends on Friday, January 15. Please check Infinite Campus for any missing assignments so that you can get the best grade possible. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact your teacher for support.
- Sandusky Middle School is in the process of preparing for school sports when they are available. Parents and students, if you would like to participate, you must have an up-to-date physical on file. Please provide those to our school at your earliest convenience so that we can begin scheduling Spartan workouts for the afternoons. We must and will follow strict social distancing guidelines, so these numbers will help us decide when to begin and how to structure these workouts.
- Parents, guardians, and students, we ask that all students please wash masks if possible at least once a week. We want to make sure that everyone who enters our building is safe and that we all see the importance of keeping our masks clean. Thank you.

Please check today's email, our Twitter account (@Spartans_SMS), our Facebook page and our website for more important information on school events. Again, this is Matthew A. Mason, and SMS is pleased to serve our community!
